Postponement of The 3rd Asian Horticultural Congress 2020 (AHC2020)

Dear Participants,

The Horticultural Science Society of Thailand, the organizer of The 3rd Asian Horticultural Congress 2020 (AHC2020) had decided to postpone the event originally scheduled on 7-9 May 2020 at Bangkok International Trade & Exhibition Centre (BITEC) as it has come to our attention that there are still reports of new cases with people who contracted the COVID-19 around the world.

The new date and venue will be on 15-17 December 2020 at Miracle Grand Convention Hotel, Bangkok. We continue to track the development of situation daily. We have taken the difficult decision to reschedule the event in which the safety and health of our participants are always our top priority. We remain committed to provide the fruitful academic and research in horticultural field in the AHC2020 Congress.

Our secretariat will contact registered participants regarding registration process.
